Motion to dismiss 3 photos

M-4 Ceiling Tiles

In re: Case No. 15CVF02981

GUY A. FERGUSON, CLERK
MUNICIPAL COURT
BY  DEPUTY

Margaret Baldino, Defendant in this case, state as follows:

Exhibit M-4

Attached herein are an exhibit comprised of three photos tendered originally by the Plaintiffs and labeled by the Defendant as Exhibit M-4 collectively.

1.) Exhibit M-4 is the Plaintiffs' three Photos of ceiling tiles. Two of the three submitted photos show repairs. The Defendant asserts that the repaired ceiling tiles were repaired by the Defendant.

2.) The Defendant asserts that the Plaintiffs were/are fully aware of the damages caused by the Plaintiffs' negligence of their plumbing skills, namely the damages that resulted from the numerous leaks and floods from the upstairs tenant, which is a separate tenant than the Defendant.

3.) Plaintiffs have submitted the computer-generated photos, some of which have words placed within the photos. One of the photos states,

" Damage to ceiling tiles in front room facing N Limestone St. Tiles will need to be replaxed (sic) x6 tiles"

Exhibit DVD; Video #1

The Defendant refutes the claim written within the photo of three ceiling tiles, made by the Plaintiffs, with the DVD video, herein attached.

In regards to the "Front Room @ N. Limestone St."

The video can be seen here on Youtube:

<https://youtu.be/ZiQliepK1ME>

*A Copy of this video in 6 different formats is also attached herein.

4.) The aforementioned video shows the approximate date of the video. For instance, the stain in the hallway shows that the particular video must have been created after the some of the floods from the upstairs tenant's plumbing. Other indications of the date of the video are the state of the walls within the video, which show Defendant having filled all holes made by thumbtacks, and that the thumbtack holes are no longer present.

5.) The damage to the ceiling tiles within the Defendant's Leased space are due to another tenant's plumbing, which the defendant asserts had undergone repeated attempts by the Plaintiffs for repair.

6.) There are numerous floods recorded by the Defendant, some of which are already on Youtube, and yet still other videos are already submitted into evidence through previous motions and memorandums to the Court already.

7.) Defendant's video/audio evidence shows damaging occurrences beyond the Defendant's control.

Exhibit DVD; Video #2

8.) The following video is another rendition, also on youtube as:

<https://youtu.be/Csb9RwHvSME>

*A Copy of this video in 6 different formats is also attached herein.

In this video, the leaking surprises the Defendant as the dripping from the ceiling above were not expected since the Plaintiffs had claimed to have "fixed" the problem. Again, it is an obvious failed attempt to the repair of the Plaintiffs' plumbing not belonging to the Defendant. Defendant would have appreciated Plaintiffs having obtained a licensed plumber at some point in the disasters, said disasters affected the Defendant's normal planned movement and functions throughout various days and nights.

9.) The Defendant did repair, or attempted repair, of a few of the damaged ceiling tiles, as seen in the photos submitted by the Plaintiffs. However, it is not the obligation of the Defendant to do said repairs. The repairs were done without cost to the Plaintiffs, whereas the compound for said repairs were of cost to the Defendant.

Exhibit DVD; Video #3

10.) Other videos that show Defendant as blameless are on youtube:

<https://youtu.be/ftU5t1aIz9A>

*A Copy of this video in 6 different formats is also attached herein.

Exhibit DVD; Video #4

This video, within the start/beginning of the attached video clip, shows the state of the front room's ceiling tiles, which clearly refute the allegation of the Plaintiffs concerning that room's ceiling tiles:

https://youtu.be/x_ZoGpEqIM4

*A Copy of this video in 6 different formats is also attached herein.

The Defendant asserts that the Plaintiffs have no just cause for claim against the Defendant, and the Defendant moves the Court for dismissal of the Plaintiffs' Ceiling Tile Photos. Further, the Defendant motions the Court to dismiss the Plaintiffs' unsubstantiated Claim against the Defendant for damages to property belonging to the Plaintiffs.

Respectfully,
